There is a doll in my bed.

There are some eggs in my basket.

There is a sofa next to the lamp.

We use there is and there are when we want to say that something is in a certain location.

There is a fox in the box.

There are foxes in the boxes.

There is a mole in the hole.

There are moles in the holes.